VI. ANALYSIS

1. Officer Raymond Archulata

COPA recommends a finding of Unfounded for all Allegation. No Chicago Police Officers were present during the takedown or conduct alleged by [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] alleged to both the hospital staff at Rush University Medical Center and IPRA that he was physically abused by several unidentified Chicago Police Officers and security personnel while at [REDACTED] Hospital approximately on February 28, 2016. According to the Chicago Police Department Report and the Incident Report from [REDACTED] Hospital, [REDACTED] became physical with the [REDACTED] Hospital Security and was placed in custody prior to Officer Archulata's arrival. Both officers Archuleta and Gonzales stated that when they arrived [REDACTED] was already restrained by [REDACTED] Security in handcuffs, they switched handcuffs on [REDACTED] and simply transported him from the hospital. Further confirming Chicago Police Officers were not involved in the force used to arrest [REDACTED], incident reports from [REDACTED] Hospital detail that [REDACTED] was physically restrained after he became irate with hospital security and specifically, Sherriff's Office [REDACTED] "handicapped" [REDACTED] before he was placed in cuffs. Therefore, COPA finds none of the force alleged was used by any Chicago Police Officer and thus no TRRs were necessary. All the allegations are Unfounded.

COPA recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegation #2, that Officer Archulata failed to complete a Tactical Response Report (TRR) related to the incident, in violation of Rule 10, "Inattention to duty." Officer Archulata stated that when he arrived at [REDACTED] Hospital [REDACTED] was in custody and laying on his stomach on the ground. Officer Archulata related that he stood [REDACTED] up, removed the security officers' handcuffs and placed his handcuffs on [REDACTED]'s wrist. Officer Archulata then escorted [REDACTED] to his vehicle and transported him to the 018th District for processing. Officer Archulata stated that he did not complete a TRR regarding his contact with [REDACTED] because it was not required. Based on the available evidence, Officer Archulata was not required to complete a TRR regarding his contact with [REDACTED].

2. Unknown Officer

COPA recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegations #1, 2 and 3 that an unknown officer grabbed [REDACTED] by his left arm & lifted it behind his back causing him pain, placed a knee on [REDACTED]'s back, and pushed [REDACTED]'s face on the ground with a foot. Based on the hospital's incident report COPA finds that the officer described by [REDACTED] was either Northwestern Security officer or Cook County Sherriff [REDACTED]. Therefore, as COPA has no jurisdiction over these individuals we close our investigation related to these allegations.

VII. CONCLUSION

Based on the analysis set forth above, COPA makes the following findings:

Officer	Allegation	Finding
Officer Raymond Archulata	1. "Slammed" [REDACTED] to the ground.	Unfounded
	2. Failed to complete a Tactical Response Report related to the incident.	Unfounded
Officer Unknown Officer	1. Grabbed [REDACTED] by his left arm & lifted it behind his back causing him pain.	Unfounded
	2. Placed a knee on [REDACTED]'s back.	Unfounded
	3. Pushed [REDACTED]'s face on the ground with a foot.	Unfounded
